Vampire Knight Vol 3 Matsuri

Volume 3 of Vampire Knight is the flashback volume. While it also shows how background players are trying to manipulate those around them, including a grandfather that apparently has a vendetta against Kaname, there's also a lot of exposition on how Kaname saved Yuki on that winter's night, how he brought her to Headmaster Cross and she was adopted.

Vampire Knight, Vol. 3 (Vampire Knight, #3) by Matsuri Hino

I am happy that Matsuri Hino continued with this side project after the end of the Vampire Knight series. This volume contains some of the silliness (and therefore, lightheartedness) of the original series while also dealing heavily with loss after loss. It's a lot like sifting through a scrapbook and seeing pictures of the lives that were.
